“She’s a cracking filly and was my pick of the day. I haven’t seen many by the sire, but he is a son of Frankel and a St James’s Palace Stakes winner so there is a lot to like there.”

Nicolas de Watrigant, Mandore International Agency, re: filly ex Pigota purchased for €160,000

“He’s a very good-looking colt by a very good son of Frankel. He’s a bit of a standout and makes plenty of sense.”

Alex Elliott, re: colt ex Midnight Hush purchased for Ralph Beckett for 120,000gns

“I was particularly taken by the stock of Without Parole and was pleased to buy a couple including a lovely easy-moving colt in Book 1. He is a very interesting first season sire in my opinion.”

Anthony Bromley, Highflyer Bloodstock,
re: colt ex Rachel Zane purchased for 52,000gns

“He’s a very good model with substance. I can see him coming together at two. I’m thrilled to get one by a sire who we’ve bred to and admire.”
